Description

UFuture (ufuture.com) is a Ukrainian holding company with $550m of assets in a portfolio of companies with a total market capitalization of more than $1bn in real estate, infrastructure, manufacturing, pharmaceuticals, renewable energy, media, education, IT and tech. The company was founded and is owned by a Ukrainian entrepreneur and philanthropist Mr. Vasyl Khmelnytsky (ufuture.com/founder/). UFuture is a majority shareholder in real estate company UDP, Kyiv Sikorsky International Airport and RTM advertising agency, a strategic investor in pharmaceutical producer Biopharma and renewable energy investment & development company UDP Renewables. UFuture also owns and (co-)operates industrial park Bila Tserkva, manufacturer of wiring devices Plank Electrotechnic, and ITernal - a group of IT and tech companies. You can find more about each asset in our portfolio here: <https://ufuture.com/our-companies>. At the event, we would like to present our portfolio company ITernal which provides software development services as well as outstaffing services, R&D set-up and M&A advisory services in Ukraine.
